

Reporting Policy

All reports shall be created with transparency in mind and to that effect any discrepancies found in someone's work shall be calmly discussed and modified as soon as an issue is discovered.

Allowing false information to be perpetuated is a fire-able offence if it is determined that it was intentionally done.

Approved by COO, HR